

Learn Chinese at AGWCS

Austin Great Wall Chinese School (AGWCS) is a non-profit organization registered with city government. The school was established in 1994. It has been serving the community by teaching Chinese language, art, and culture since then.

AGWCS has a strong faculty team. Our teachers have at least Bachelor degree, quite a few have their Ph.D. All of the teachers speak standard Mandarin, are experienced, have passion toward students and in teaching. Currently, it has over 400 students enrolled, having been the largest Chinese School in Austin areas for years. AGWCS offers multiple programs from 2:00pm to 6:00pm on Sundays. The first two hours are devoted to Chinese language learning for the students with Chinese background. From 4:00 to 4:50, the school offers classes like Math, Art, Music, Dance, Kunfu, Taiji, Chess, Badminton and Chinese calligraphy... Bilingual classes are offered to both children and adults without Chinese background but descent to learn Chinese as their second language from 4:00 to 5:50pm.

The students need to get them registered each semester online via www.agwcs.org after creating their student accounts. The online registration generally begins from August 1st and January 1st every year. Please visit www.agwcs.org or send your inquiries email to board09.agwcs@gmail.com for more detailed information.
